While Gujarat is one of the leading contributors to the national GDP, Rajkot has emerged as a crucial hub of manufacturing with well defined clusters for Engineering, Machine Tools, Bearings, Auto Parts and Foundry among others. Rajkot is reputed for the enterprise and ingenuity of its people. In Machine Tools for example, from being an importer not so long ago, it now manufactures and exports the latest Machine Tools incorporating cutting-edge technologies to more than a dozen countries! Today, the truly vast number of MSMEs in Rajkot district form an integral part of the supply chain management in various engineering sectors such as bearings, auto parts, pumps etc. Success breeds success and with increasing and significant investments, the infrastructure of the manufacturing units have seen dramatic modernization in production resulting in even higher output of industrial products of internationally competitive quality and cost.

The RAJKOT MACHINE TOOLS SHOW has over the last eight editions since 2006, played a significant role in the growth story of the region by offering a highly successful regional trade show platform, popularly known simply as RMTS, which brings together at one time and place, not only the enterprise and genius of the regional players but also industry leaders from all over India and abroad. Today, RMTS has become one of India's definitive trade shows for the display and sourcing of cutting-edge technology and innovation in Machine Tools and other engineering products required for modern manufacturing.
