RAJKOT AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY OF ENTERPRISE & ENGINEERING GENIUS

The rise of Rajkot over the last two decades as a major Indian manufacturing hub integral to global supply chains is truly a remarkable story.

The Rajkot machine tools industry has played a pivotal role in this rise. From being an importer of technology at the turn of the century to becoming an exporter of most sophisticated CNC machine tools to advanced countries today, the transformation of the local machine tools industry has been phenomenal.

It is a truly an inspiring example of 'Make in India' and becoming 'Atmanirbhar'.

The increasing local availability of advanced machine tools ignited the growth of all other regional industries like auto components, diesel engines, bearings, pumps & valves, castings & forgings, and various industrial equipment.
